ANÁLISIS ARTÍSTICO

As in the Transit of St. Anthony Abbot (1), it is another reduction, sketchy version of the altarpiece painted by Corrado Giaquinto for the church of San Giovanni Calibita in Rome. A number of attributions of this work have been suggested to Antonio González Velázquez, Manuel Bayeu, Francisco Bayeu and Goya José de la Mano first proposed the latter, Goya, in 1990. Following his detailed study at the Museo del Prado (2015), the attribution to Goya stands today.

It is painted on two pieces of linen cloth sewn together. It is painted on two pieces of linen cloth sewn together.

CONSERVACIÓN
